Dear Colleague:

At the beginning of this new century, the Canadian Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (CACOLE) and the International Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (IACOLE) have jointly set their Annual Conference in Quebec City (Canada) in June 2001. This will enable their members both in Canada and internationally to identify some of the challenges that civilian oversight agencies must face.

By holding a joint conference, CACOLE and IACOLE recognize that to confront challenges they must count on pan-Canadian co-operation, as well as on international co-operation.

The theme of the joint CACOLE/IACOLE 2001 trilingual (English, French, and Spanish) Conference will be, Civilian Oversight Challenges in a Global Environment: Human Rights and the Police.

It will take place:

WHEN: from Thursday, June 14, 2001 to Monday, June 18, 2001 (inclusive)

WHERE: Hotel Clarendon
57 Ste-Anne Street
Quebec, Quebec CANADA G1R 3X4
Telephone: (418) 692-2480
Toll free: (1-888-554-6001)

Note: Cost of one night, single or double occupancy, breakfast included: $169 (CAN).

REGISTRATION for joint conference: C$500 – before April 1, 2001
C$550 – after April 1, 2001

P.S. Please register early, as the number of registrations will likely have to be limited.

We will be forwarding further information concerning the agenda of the 2001 joint conference, as well as registration particulars, in the near future.
